

TESAREAU'S PITCHING DEFEATS PITTSBURGH

Camnitz Also Does Some Fancy Twirling, but Is Hit at Just Right Moments—Cubs Lose Twice to Phillies.

New York, September 21.—A four-ply screw on the mound today gave the Pirates a 2 to 1 verdict over the Phillies. Tesareau and Camnitz fought a pretty pitching duel. Tesareau brought his own single, one by Merkle and Shaffer's sacrifice. The Pirates scored in the sixth on Wagner's single and Shaffer's sacrifice, and Myers' hit on Shaffer. Score:

POOR CUBS ARE DOWN

Philadelphia, September 21.—The Phillies grabbed both ends of a double-header with the Cubs today, winning the first game by an eight-inning rally by the score of 8 to 2, and taking the second game by a 5 to 2 score. With the score 1-0 in the eighth, the Cubs were leading when the winning run in the eighth, but with two out, Luders singled and Knabe walked. Doolin then walked the game-winning double, scoring two runs. For eight innings in the second game, the Cubs allowed the Cubs one hit, but in the ninth they rallied, and three men singled and the bases were filled. A pass forced in Zimmerman, and Saler counted on a wild pitch. Then Seaton fanned Cotto and Goode, and the game was over. Score:

The Christ Church Association has started a very commendable move, the object of which is to form two leagues from among the baseball players who are members of the Christ Church Association. It is a good move and should stimulate similar organizations throughout the city to work along the same line. The Christ Church Association has an enclosed park and will not have the matter of securing a park to handle the new movement, which has created considerable interest among the young men of its membership.

building parks exclusively for the use of the amateurs.

Cost Almost Prohibitive.
No greater evidence of the need of exclusive parks for the amateurs is needed than to cite the cost of the Broad Street Park to the Battle Axe team during the recent game with the Peppos. The Battle Axe management had to pay to the management of the Broad Street Park Corporation 25 cents out of every dollar that was taken in at the gate, in addition to paying two-thirds of the expenses of the hire of labor at the park. This took a large part of the proceeds out of the pockets of the Battle Axe and the management of the Battle Axe and the Peppos teams, and apparently was a heavier charge than the series of games merited.

With adequate parks for the use of the amateur teams of the city expenses incident to the above will be out of the and clubs will benefit to that extent.

It is probable that a meeting of the Amateur Commission will be held Tuesday night to discuss plans for next season, and it is hoped that the call for the meeting will be responded to promptly by all interested parties.

Secretary Hooper has consented to keep his books open until September 25 to allow the managers of the various leagues to turn in their reports. Lists for the season of 1912. All players whose names are not turned in by the 25th will be declared free agents.
